Heraclitus The Cosmic Fragments

This combination of words by ancient Greek philosopher, Heraclitus, is known as «Fragments» because there are no actual works of his in existence today. There are only examples from antiquity where others quoted his long lost works. This book is, therefore, a compilation of bits and pieces of Heraclitus' unique kind of philosophy.

Heraclitus: The Cosmic Fragments by Heraclitus

This book is a translation and commentary on the fragments of Heraclitus about nature rather than about man (ethics, the soul, epistemology, politics). The fragments are organized into groups and each fragment is translated with commentary about its transmission and meaning. This is not an introduction to the world view of Heraclitus.
