After many years of negotiations among Member States, a uniform set of private international law rules has been established to determine the conduct of cross-border insolvency proceedings within the European Community. This is the European Insolvency Regulation of May 2000. Although each state still retains its own insolvency law, the regulation greatly reduces the risk of opportunistic behaviour by providing certainty as to which European courts

The Insolvency (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020

In this contribution I summarily review the changes to the European Insolvency Regulation ('EIR'). The new Regulation, 2015/848, will apply to insolvency proceedings opened after 26 June 2017. It repeals Regulation 1346/2000. I will use 'EIR 2015' for the new Regulation and 'former EIR' when I refer to Regulation 1346/2000.

Commentary on the European Insolvency Regulation: Bork ...

The existing European Insolvency Regulation (EIR) was revised because it had a few shortcomings, such as: inadequate international jurisdiction provisions allowing for undesirable forum shopping, the exclusion of pre-insolvency proceedings, and the lack of provisions for group company insolvencies.
